TO FORM ARMY OF BOYS FOR FARMING INDUSTRY

Plans for Enlistment of 2,000,000

Youngsters for Agricultural Service Under Way.

Plans for the enlistment of an army of 2,000,000 boys for agricultural service is receiving enthusiastic encouragement at the Department of Agriculture, together with other drastic steps to increase food production during the war.
Secretary Houston has ordered wide publicity given resolutions adopted at the recent St. Louis conference of agriculture experts looking to production of greater crops as an emergency measure. They recommend that Congress appropriate $25,000,000 for use by the Secretary of Agriculture in such a campaign.

Factor in Winning the War.

"Upon the farmer rests in a large measure the final responsibility of winning the war," declare the resolutions made public here. "Because of the world shortage of food, it is scarcely possible that the production of staple crops by the farmer of the United States can be too great this year."

It is recommended that boys under the military age and men beyond age and those physically disqualified should be enrolled in the national army for labor in production of food, munitions and supplies. Other recommendations are for creation of an agricultural service under the control of national defense to supervise agricultural matter, and for the vesting of wide authority in the Secretary of Agriculture to regulate and standardize food production and distribution.

U. S. EXPECTED TO AID IN GREAT NAVAL BATTLE

Swiss Military Critic Foresees Revival of Aggressive Sea Policy Against Germany.

BERN, Switzerland, via Paris, April 12.—The military critic of the Basle Nachrichten believes that the entrance into the war of the powerful American fleet will "sooner or later lead to a revival of an aggressive sea policy against Germany, and will probably culminate in a gigantic battle, which will put the Dardanelles fight in the shade."

The writer says that the allied fleets will find behind the German coast defenses "an opponent who knows what disastrous results the success of such an Anglo-American undertaking would have for his fatherland."

This observer further believes that if America attempts to transport troops to Europe Germany will abandon her submarine campaign in the Mediterranean and mass all available U-boats against the American transports. He is dubious of the present value of America as a military aid, and says the standing army, the only present threat to modern war, is needed at home to watch Mexico. He calculates, however, that the United States has 15,000,000 men of military age whom it can equip and train, and that the entente has acquired an ally who may prove the decisive factor in the war.

Births Reported.

health department in the last twenty-four
